DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

---FOR CONGRESS---
HON. A. O. STANLEY,
HENDERSON, COUNTY.

The Weather.

FOR KENTUCKY—Generally fair
Thursday.

A typewritten speech of Senator La Follette in his Senate filibuster effort, as transcribed by official reporters, weighs nineteen pounds. It is the heaviest as well as the longest talk ever delivered in Congress.

The Paducah council has raised the liquor license from $150 to $500, at the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, when all licenses expire. An injunction is talked of, but the council can control the situation by refusing license to those who resist the new ordinance.

The Paducah Morning Register was bought at public sale by Warner Moore, managing editor of the paper, for $5,000. The plant was appraised at $16,000. The purchaser says he will organize a company and continue the publication.

Many boys of Greater New York are uniting in a project to celebrate the Fourth of July most patriotically and at the same time time sensibly, without blowing off their fingers or shooting out their eyes, or starting costly fires. At least 5,000 boys, it is expected, will march to the City Hall on the Glorious Fourth, and, while the stars and stripes are floating in the breeze above, will listen to eloquent speakers.

A New York contemporary tells of an impressive scene at the graduating ceremonies of the Institution for the Improved Instruction of Deaf-mutes. It showed the advancement recently made in rendering the speechless no longer mute and in educating the deaf as they have not been commonly educated before. As an example, two essays were read by young girls to whom the recognition of all sound is denied, and who but a year ago would have been designated as mutes.

Ruby Laffoon's friends are starting a boom for him for speaker of the next house. The discouraging part of this moment is that Hopkins county last year joined the Republican ranks, sent a Republican to the Legislature and also went against Mr. Laffoon on the state ticket. Catching the rabbit is going to be one thing to consider before the stew is made. But Mr. Laffoon is an able man and can perhaps come as near carrying his county as any man in it, except C. C. Givens, who has never lost it.

With King Edward and Queen Alexandria smiling approval from their private gallery, Jean Reid, daughter of Whitelaw Reid, the American Ambassador to England, was married Tuesday afternoon in the Chapel Royal of the St. James Palace to the Hon. John Hubert Ward, brother of the Earle of Dudley and equerry-in-waiting to the king. The ceremony took place in the ancient chapel, one of the few remains of the old palace of the Tudors, in which Queen Victoria and several of her daughters were married.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any

HEAVY WEIGHTS.

Taft and Sherman Together
Weigh Nearly 500
Pounds.

Washington, June 22.—In spite of the fact that Secretary Taft has often laughingly declared that "No real gentleman weighs more than 300 pounds," his solid bulk, combined with the compact frame of his running mate, James S. Sherman, makes the heaviest ticket ever put forward by any national party. The two men together tip the scales at something not far short of 500 pounds.

The record before was held by the Democrats on the strength of the avoirdupois of Grover Cleveland.
When nominated in 1892 Mr. Cleveland weighed about 275 pounds, but the small figure of Adlai Stevenson kept the total around 425 pounds.

The exact weight of the big Secretary is not known, though the popular guess is not far short of the "limit of gentility" set by himself.
Mr. Sherman weighs a good 200 pounds.

Judgment Finished Him.

L. King Mayhew, Hillsdale, Simpson county, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States court, Louisville. His principal liability, as stated in the petition, is a judgment against him for breach of promise in favor of Miss Mollie Eschew, of Hillsdale, in the sum of $2,270. His total liabilities are $2,993. His assets are listed at $2,050, of which $1,900 is claimed as exempt.

Sensible Way Out.

Franklin, Ky., June 23.—King Mayhew and Miss Ollie Eschew were married on the public square here to-day by Judge Bradshaw while seated in a buggy. The bride had obtained judgment against the groom for breach of promise and the marriage to-day settled the case.

The National for June.

The Washington Department of the National Magazine for June is the same exhaustless spring of sprinkling notes of Washington life in their freshness, vivid picturing and personal touch. The American who wants to be entertained as well as instructed on what is most in the forefront at Washington can find no better monthly informant than the National Magazine.

$360,000 FROM WABASH

Mrs. Ellen Compton Wins 30-Year Fight Against Gould Line.

Lexington, Ky., June 22.—Mrs.
Ellen Compton, of Washington, who is in this city on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Milton J. Durham, has just been notified that by a judgment rendered in the United States court at Toledo, Ohio, has been awarded $360,000 as the result of a suit filed against the Wabash Railroad Co. several years ago by her late husband, James Compton, of Washington.

The original claim on which judgment has just been rendered was for compensation for part of the Wabash railroad between Toledo and the state line which Mr. Compton claimed was to have been paid him in the railroad's stock. The original claim was for $5,000,000, and when it was first filed in the courts it was rumored that the Goulds, who control the Wabash system, would abandon that portion of the road, as it was alleged the sum demanded exceeded the value of the property.

This was not done, however, and after many years of litigation the claim has been settled by the judgment just rendered for $360,000.
The original suit was instituted nearly thirty years ago, and as it is believed that the railroad company is now tired of the long struggle it is considered probable that there will be no appeal taken, and her attorneys have informed Mrs. Compton that the amount of the judgment probably will be paid her by the first of November. As Mrs. Compton has no children, and there are no other direct heirs of her husband's estate, she will receive the whole amount, aggregating nearly a million.

Methodists Immersed.

During the revival at the Methodist church, there were five persons joined who desired immersion.
There being no baptism at the Methodist church, the pastor, Rev.
W. W. Adams, came over to the Baptist church with his new members, where he baptized them late Sunday afternoon in the baptistry of the Baptist church.—Mayfield

Prince Number Two.

Madrid, June 24.—A son was born to Queen Victoria of Spain Monday night. Queen Victoria, formerly Princess Ena of Battenburg, and King Alfonso were married at Madrid on May 31, 1906. Their first son was born on May 10, 1907.

JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS.

How He Surprised a Spanish Princess in Europe.

The gentleman from Mississippi with the curling locks and the keen gray eyes who has tasted of the Pie-rian springs at the Kentucky Millitary Institute, in Tennessee, Virginias Heidelberg and various centers of learning, is rich in experience gleaned from all quarters of the globe. He is an expert linguist—not as Thackeray scathingly puts it, familiar with many languages and acquainted with none." Mr. Williams being "born and bred in de brar patch," is even au courant with the patois of the plantation.

At some august function in Europe where Mr. Williams was a guest, the reigning toast of the evening was a langorous, full-lipped Oriental beauty in superb attire, with great dreaming dark eyes and a complexion of rich golden olive. A Spanish princess of immense wealth was the role the lucious lady played. She queened it royally—this dusky beauty, saying little—being of the lotus-eating type, but flashing her white teeth in a prodigality of smiles more eloquent than words. Men prostrated themselves before her, and women strove to snatch the elusive fashion of her frocks. Her swarthiness she explained she had contracted during a long sojourn in the West Indies, where she had vast possessions.

Now, there was something in the cut of the jib of the dusky damsel of mysterious antecedents that set the gentleman from Mississippi to thinking. He had his suspicions. Nay, he had his convictions. Also he loved fun.

In a favorable moment when the crowd was less dense about the star of the evening Mr. Williams casually, en passant, flashed into the diamond decked ear of the dark divinity, in a whisper:

"Say, nigger, whar did you come fum?"

The royal beauty turned ashen.
"Fum South China," she gibbered in agony—"but in de name o' Gaud, boss, please, suh, don't gimme away."

Compulsory Attendance.

The Central Christian church congregation at Lexington will vote in the fall on a resolution to bar from active membership those who do not attend church regularly and fail to pay their dues.

Wholesale Lynching.

A Texas mob hanged and shot nine negroes at Hemphill. The negroes were in jail on the charge of killing a white man.

Have You a Summer Stove?

The stifling air of a close kitchen is changed to comfortable coolness by installing a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove to do the family cooking.

No kitchen furnishing is so convenient as this stove. Gives a working heat at once, and maintains it until turned out —that too, without overheating the room. If you examine the

NEW PERFECTION Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove you will see why this is so. The heat from the chimney of the "New Perfection" is concentrated under the kettle and not dissipated through the room by radiation. Thus it does the work of the coal range without its discomfort. Ask your dealer about this stove—if not with him, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp is a very handsome piece of housefurnishing and gives a clear, powerful light more agreeable than gas or electricity. Safe everywhere and always. Made of brass finely nickel plated—just the thing for the living-room. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

PAPER TRUST

Twenty-four Manila Wrapping Paper Concerns Mul-ted For $1000 Each.

Twenty-four companies manufacturing manila wrapping paper, were fined $1,000 each by Judge Hough in the United States circuit court to-day. They pleaded guilty on Friday last to maintaining an illegal combination in restraint of trade.
They were members of the Manila and Fiber Association.

In imposing the fines, Judge Hough said that that the combination of paper manufacturers was a clear violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, but because of extenuating circumstances he would impose a fine only.
The companies have arranged to pay their fines through their counsel.

The case against the companies was instituted through the instru-mentality of the American Newspaper publishers' Association, for which John Norris, of this city, acted as agent. The companies composed almost the entire membership of the combine of wrapping paper manufacturers, which was organized by John H. Parks in 1906.

Racing Bill Lost.

The Louisiana Senate failed to pass the Locke anti-racing bill last night.
Friends of the measure could not muster enough votes and forced an adjournment. The racetrack people are jubilant and claim victory.
